

June 2017

Dear Tyee Club Members & Friends;

Welcome to our 2017 Tyee season. The clubhouse, the grounds and the wharves will all be ready and waiting and the coffee pot will be on! The annual pre-season preparations are well underway and Bob and Judy are once again waiting to welcome you! Remember you can view the clubhouse and shoreline by accessing our webcam through a link on our homepage.

Tribal Journey's is coming to Campbell River during the August long weekend. We are hearing that the spit may be closed to vehicle traffic on Saturday, August 5. Further notice will be posted on our website. It will surely be a sight as over 100 First Nations canoe's will arrive in Campbell River and be greeted with ceremony. Our director, Robin Modesto is heading up a volunteer group to be part of this historic event. Please contact Robin Modesto at robin.modesto@shaw.ca if you have some time to volunteer for this event.

Once again we are partnering with Peetz Reels for the custom Tyee Club reels. A portion of all sales will be donated to the Tyee Club. They are exquisite and make excellent gifts. Information is available on the website.

The Tyee Club continues to do our part with salmon enhancement conducting another successful Net Pen under the supervision of Jeremy Maynard and his team of volunteers who annually give their time. We continued the estuary clean up with financial support from the Pacific Salmon Foundation and partnership with the City of Campbell River and oversight by Floyd Ross. Both of these projects play a role in salmon enhancement with further work scheduled in the coming year. We were recognized this year with the Woodpecker award recognizing the estuary clean-up project headed by Floyd Ross and a crew of volunteers.

We are always looking for volunteers, so please drop us line if you have some time to give. If you can commit to rowing a tide to thank some of our volunteers please let us know. There is no shortage of opportunities to volunteer, from record keeping, to prizes, to maintenance and more.

Our Annual General Meeting this year is on Saturday, August 19 at Painter's Lodge with doors open at 10:30 a.m. All awards and trophies from the 2016 season will be presented. Everyone is welcome. Hope to see you there! Also, don't forget the Pot Luck BBQ August 23, the Wednesday after the AGM.

Please complete and return the attached membership form for the 2017 year.
I wish everyone a successful season.

Tight lines,

Sharon Fisher, President
